Idea/ POC/ Prototype Submission by Student

- Before you apply for this contest visit <https://mic.gov.in/innovationcontest> and go through the terms and conditions carefully and keenly.
- Refer Technology Readiness Levels (TRL) and submit the idea/POC/Prototype accordingly.
- You can either submit the Idea, POC and Porotypes subsequently after clearing each evaluation stage or if you already have POC/Porotype ready (refer TRL) you can directly submit POC/Prototype.
- If you submit the Idea/POC/Prototype it will reflect in the IIC login to the IIC President/Convener and they have to evaluate the submission as per guidelines/marketing scheme given by IIC-MIC at the portal. If IIC President/Convener/ council rejects the entry the journey of that Idea/POC/Prototype ends then and there. If Idea/POC/Prototype declared qualified it will reflect under students login and they can proceed for the next stage.

Guideline for Submission of Ideas by Student Team

- The student team can submit their Idea either directly at IIC Portal in the prescribed format or can submit to their IIC In-charge for consideration.
- A student team can submit up to 5 Ideas by Clicking “Add More” button.
- After submission of idea(s) by the team lead, it will be reviewed and evaluated by respective IIC Institute.
- Respective IIC institute will carry out evaluations based on the guidelines given and allocate mark to each idea and approve/disapprove the idea for upgradation to next level (PoC stage).
- The cut-off score for upgradation to next stage is 25 (out of 50).
- After approval from IIC, student team will be able to see the approved idea under PoC stage and Student team need to provide additional information required to carry out evaluation of PoC stage by the IIC Institute.
- IIC Institute will provide handholding and mentoring support and access to lab for conversion of Idea to PoC stage. Please contact and coordinate with members of IIC of your institute for support.

Guideline for Submission of PoCs by Student Team

- The student team can submit their PoCs either directly at IIC Portal in the prescribed format or can submit to their IIC In-charge for consideration.
- A student team can submit up to 5 PoCs by Clicking “Add More” button.
- After submission of POC by the team lead, it will be reviewed and evaluated by respective IIC Institute.
- Respective IIC institute will carry out evaluations based on the guidelines given and allocate mark to each PoC and approve/disapprove the PoC for upgradation to next level (Prototype stage).
- The cut-off score for upgradation to next stage is 25 (out of 50).
- On upgradation, Student team will be able to see their PoC application in Prototype stage and student team need to provide additional information required to carry out evaluation of prototype by the IIC Institute.
- IIC Institute will provide handholding and mentoring support and access to labs for conversion of PoC to Prototype stage. Please contact and coordinate with members of IIC of your institute for support.

Guideline for Submission of Prototype by Student Team

- The student team can submit their Prototype either directly at IIC Portal or to IIC of their institute.
- A student team can submit up to 5 Prototypes by Clicking “Add More” button.
- After submission of Prototype by the team lead, it will be reviewed and evaluated by respective IIC Institute.
- IIC institute will carry out evaluations based on the guidelines given and allocate mark to each Prototype and approve/disapprove the Prototype for nomination to next level.
- Finally based on the score obtained in the evaluation, each IIC Institute will be asked to nominate maximum 5 best prototype applications to IIC-MHRD’s Innovation Cell for further mentoring and training support. The cut-off score for upgradation to next stage is 25 (out of 50).
- Contact your IIC faculty members for further support and information.
